

WELCOME TO THE TRUST

Gloucester Charities Trust has a long history of providing affordable housing and practical assistance to older people in Gloucestershire. The Trust also manages a residential home, a nursing home and a day centre, all of which help to create a seamless approach to supporting local people to live full and independent lives, both in their own homes and, if the need arises, in one of our specialist facilities.

OUR AIM

At Gloucester Charities Trust we understand how important it is to feel settled and secure in later years of life and our aim is to make life a little easier by offering a range of high quality support services, all of which can be tailored to meet the needs of the individual. We manage 133 self-contained retirement flats at four sites across the city, along with Magdalen House, our Nursing Home and Guild House, our residential facility.

“Getting to know you” is vital to enable us to provide holistic care and to create a person centred care plan which is unique to the individual taking account of life history, likes, dislikes, relationships etc.

The Trust is a Gloucester based charity which is registered to provide housing and support services for older people.

“Opening doors for older people in Gloucestershire”

What is Guild House?

Guild House is a registered residential home for older people. We have 34 beds, of which 24 are allocated to those living with dementia in our Grace and Bluebell Wings. The remaining 10 beds are for older people with residential needs. At Guild House we treat our residents with dignity and respect, we value individuality and personal choice. We provide excellent care in homely surroundings.

How do I get to Guild House?

Guild House is located near the city centre on main bus routes, with the railway station and the M5 motorway close by.

How can I apply?

We operate an open referral process and accept direct applications from individuals, families, GP's and Health and Social Care workers. Further information, and application forms can be obtained by contacting Guild House on 01452 525098 or by visiting the home in person.

What can you expect at Guild House ?

Residents have the choice of participate in a wide range of activities throughout the week—from outings in our own minibus, film shows, art sessions and musical movement to reading groups, flower arranging, scrabble and bingo. Our most popular sessions are our pamper ones which include hand and foot massage. Daily news papers can be ordered in and the hairdresser and chiropodist visit regularly.

Each Resident room is tastefully decorated and comes with its own en-suite. Furniture is provided and residents are encouraged to bring in personal items to create a home-from-home. The Home also has a large conservatory looking out over its well tended, spacious gardens for residents to enjoy.

Any visitor to Guild House will find a warm and hospitable welcome. Our residents are encouraged to invite their family and friends to share a lunch from our first class menu.

The Home has dedicated floors for those living with dementia. Grace and Bluebell for those living with dementia and these are purpose designed with their own lounge, dining and kitchen areas.

Meals

All our delicious, home cooked, meals are prepared on site in our kitchens from locally sourced fresh produce and are nutritionally balanced to meet our residents needs. Choice is the key and we can cater for a range of individual dietary needs . Snacks are available throughout the day and night on requested.

Staff

Our qualified and experienced staff are friendly and approachable and are experienced and skilled in caring for those living with a dementia. They are passionate about working with each individual in a person centred way. They believe they are guests in the resident's home and treat each residents with dignity and respect.
